

FALL NEWSLETTER 2023

And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28 ESV

It's been one full year of being part of the Protect Me Project team! And what a year it has been! Since my last update in the Spring, I've been blessed to go back to Ecuador, attend the KMN Women's Conference and take a work trip to Chihuahua, Mexico and visit the Sierra Tarahumara with some great volunteers. During this time we interacted with dozens of individuals and promoted prevention among the Rarámuri people. I am always amazed by the dedication of our volunteers.

Outside of travelling, here in the office we finished another round of Phase 1 Human Trafficking Prevention Training and will begin Phase 2 this month. God is growing our US team and opening new doors.

In August, I also began itinerating for my next four year term with Protect Me Project. I am already blown away by your generosity and continued support! THANK YOU SO MUCH! It was such a joy to be with Journey Church Brandenburg and Cornerstone AG in Danville this last month and I'm looking forward to seeing my other friends and partners very soon.

And on a personal note, in July my boyfriend Daniel arrived in Kentucky to spend time with me and my family. We are loving having Daniel with us. Daniel has had the opportunity to go to a couple of churches with me as I itinerate and we are praying everyday that God would guide us in the next steps we take. We are excited about the future God has in store for us.
